

SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE SCHEME

April 2015

Merthyr Tydfil County Borough Council

Shared Parental Leave Scheme

1. INTRODUCTION

This scheme outlines the statutory right to take shared parental leave (SPL) to care for a child due to be born or placed for adoption on or after 5th April 2015. It also outlines the arrangements and notification requirements before a period of SPL and the entitlement to pay during SPL.

SPL allows employees with caring responsibilities for babies or newly adopted children the opportunity to share up to 52 weeks leave should they wish to do so.

2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be entitled to SPL an employee must:

- be the mother, father, or main adopter of the child, or the partner of the mother or main adopter (each will be referred to in this policy as a parent)
 - have (or share with the other parent) the main responsibility for the care of the child
 - have at least 26 weeks continuous service at the 15th week before the expected week of birth or at the week in which the main adopter was notified of having been matched for adoption with the child (known as the relevant week)
 - still be in continuous employment until the week before any SPL is taken
- In addition the other parent must:
- have at least 26 weeks employment (employed or self employed) out of the 66 weeks prior to the relevant week of confinement
 - have average weekly earnings of at least £30 during at least 13 of the 66 weeks prior to the relevant week

If the other parent meets these conditions, but does not qualify for SPL themselves, the council employee may still be entitled to the whole SPL period.

In all cases the statutory notification and information requirements must be followed.

3. ENTITLEMENT TO SHARED PARENTAL PAY

In addition to the requirements regarding entitlement to leave as outlined above.

If an employee wishes to claim shared parental pay (ShPP) they must have an average weekly earnings equal to or above the Lower Earnings Limit over the eight week period ending with the relevant week.

A maximum of 39 weeks ShPP is payable, and this will be reduced by the number of weeks statutory maternity/adoption pay or maternity allowance already taken by the mother or main adopter. ShPP is a standard weekly rate (or 90 % of the employees normal weekly earnings if this is lower) which is set by the government each tax year.

In all cases the statutory notification and information requirements must be followed.

There is no provision for employees to be paid 90 % of earnings for the first 6 weeks of the shared parental pay period where this is higher than the statutory rate as is the case for statutory maternity/adoption pay.

If both parents qualify for ShPP they must decide who will receive it or how it will be divided and inform their respective employers.

4. SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE OPTIONS

SPL can:

- Start on any day of the week
- Only be taken in complete weeks (e.g. starts on Tuesday and finishes following Monday)
- Be taken in up to three separate blocks of leave
- Be taken by both parents/partners at the same time as long as the combined leave does not exceed a total of 52 weeks, taking into account the need for the mother/main adopter/intended parent to take a minimum of 2 weeks
- Be taken at separate times by the parents.

Employees and managers should, where possible, have an informal discussion prior to employees giving formal notification of intention to take SPL so that statutory (and contractual) entitlements to other types of leave and pay can be discussed, and to ensure that plans for any discontinuous periods of leave can be considered as early as possible (see 7).

5. SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE CONDITIONS

A parent has the option to choose SPL at any time whilst they are eligible (within a year of the birth/adoption) as long as they can meet the notification requirements of at least eight weeks before the start date.

Up to three separate notifications can be given for SPL.

Parents do not have to be working for the same employer to be eligible.

A mother/main adopter can only share parental leave with one other person. It should be noted that SPL can only be used by the mother/main adopter after they have either returned to work, or given notice that reduces their maternity/adoption leave, confirming when the maternity/adoption leave will come to an end in the form of a 'maternity curtailment notice'. This Notice is binding and cannot be withdrawn except in the following circumstances:

- If it becomes apparent that neither parent is entitled to SPL or ShPP
- If the curtailment notice was given before the birth and is revoked within 6 weeks of the birth (in this case another curtailment notice can be submitted)
- If the other parent dies

6. NOTICE OF ENTITLEMENT AND INTENTION

The notification requirements for SPL and ShPP are very specific and detailed. Employees will need to complete the form at Appendix 1 as fully as possible which has been designed to assist employees to provide the required information and declarations.

Employees should return the form to their line manager.

The minimum requirements by law are:-

- 'A maternity curtailment notice' (if appropriate)
- Notice of entitlement and intention -
- A period of leave notice

In practice, at least the first period of SPL will be identified in the initial notice of entitlement and intention to take SPL. Employees are entitled to submit a maximum of a further two 'periods of leave' notices. Each notice must be given at least eight weeks before the start of a period of leave, stating the dates of the leave and the dates on which ShPP will be claimed, if applicable.

If the first 'period of leave' notice is given prior to the birth of a child, the notice may express the start date in relation to the date of birth, for example 'starting two weeks after the baby is born for a period of four weeks'.

7. PATTERN OF SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE

SPL can be taken as either a 'continuous' block or multiple 'discontinuous' blocks.
Continuous Block

This is an unbroken period of leave, e.g. for a period of six weeks leave. Eligible employees have a statutory right to take SPL in this way.

If a continuous period of leave is requested in each period of leave notice, an employee will be entitled to take that period of leave and this will be confirmed in writing.

Discontinuous Block

This is a period of leave but with breaks inbetween the leave where the employee returns to work, e.g. 3 weeks leave, followed by a return to work for 6 weeks, followed by another period of leave.

Discontinuous leave can only be taken with the Council's agreement, and once a request for discontinuous leave has been made the request must be discussed by the employee and their line manager within a period of 14 calendar days.

Managers will discuss requests received with the employee to determine whether the request

- i. can be accommodated and the leave approved
- ii. propose an alternative pattern of leave which can be agreed,
- iii. or the request can be refused.

The manager's decision will be confirmed in writing.

If no agreement is reached within two weeks of the period of leave notice being submitted the employee can:

- take the leave requested in one continuous block, beginning on the original start date
- take a continuous block of leave starting on a new date, as long as the new date is later than the original start date and the council is notified of the new date within five days of the two week period referred to above
- withdraw the request at any time up to the 15th day after it was originally made. If the request is withdrawn in these circumstances it will not count as one of the three requests allowed

8. VARYING A PERIOD OF LEAVE

An employee can submit a request to vary a period of leave in the following ways:

- i. vary the start or end date as long as the variation is requested at least eight weeks before the original start date and the new start date

- ii. vary or cancel the amount of leave requested at least eight weeks before the original start date
- iii. request that a single period of leave becomes a discontinuous period of leave or vice versa

A variation will count as one of the three period of leave notice requests (see 6) unless:

- It is made as a result of the child being born earlier or later than the expected week of childbirth. The usual eight week notice requirement may be modified if the child is born early and the new start date for the period of leave is the same length of time following the birth as in the original notice. In this case notice to vary the start date should be given as soon as reasonably practicable after the birth of the child
- the Council has requested the variation

9. SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE - KEEPING IN TOUCH DAYS (SPLIT DAYS)

An employee can agree to work on occasional days during the SPL period. There is no obligation on an employee to work during SPL and there is no obligation on the Council to offer work. These days could be for training, to attend department meetings, or just for keeping in touch in line with same principle as KIT days for maternity leave.

There are 20 SPLIT days available during SPL which are in addition to the 10 KIT days available during maternity and adoption leave.

An employee may work for up to these 20 days without bringing the SPL to an end. Work during SPL will not extend the SPL period. If an employee does work s/he will be paid at the normal rate of pay inclusive of any ShPP entitlements.

There is no obligation on an employee to work during SPL and there is no obligation on the Council to offer work.

10. TERMS AND CONDITIONS DURING SPL

The employee's contract of employment continues in force during the period of SPL and they are entitled to receive all their contractual benefit, except for salary. If the contract ends so will the benefits of this scheme.

11. PENSION CONTRIBUTIONS

Pension contributions will continue to be made during any period when the employee is receiving Shared Parental Pay (ShPP) but not during any period of unpaid SPL. Employee contributions will be based on actual pay whilst the Council's contributions will be based on the salary that the employee would have received had they not been taking SPL.

OPTIONAL: Employees who wish to consider making additional payments thereafter should contact their pensions/payroll section.

12. ANNUAL LEAVE AND BANK HOLIDAYS

An employee will continue to accrue annual leave entitlement during periods of SPL.

13. SALARY SACRIFICE

Arrangements will be made with the employee to ensure that any salary sacrifice schemes continue during the period of Shared Parental Leave as part of their continuing contractual benefits and in line with similar arrangements for Maternity and Adoption leave.

14. REDUNDANCY

If an employee's post becomes redundant during her/his SPL period, s/he must be treated as any other employee.

15. RETURNING FROM SPL

An employee wishing to return early from SPL must notify the Council at least eight weeks before both the original end date and the new end date.

An employee returning to work immediately after a period of SPL which (together with any statutory maternity/adoption leave taken to care for the same child) of 26 weeks or less will return to the same job.

An employee returning to work immediately after a period of SPL which (together with any statutory maternity/adoption leave taken to care for the same child) of 26 weeks or more will normally be entitled to return to the same job unless that is not reasonably practicable in which case the employee will return to another job which is suitable and appropriate under the circumstances.

An employee's right to return means that s/he will return on terms and conditions that are no less favorable than those that would have been applied had s/he not been absent. The return will be at the same level of seniority, pension rights and other similar rights.

16. PROTECTION FROM DETRIMENT AND DISMISSAL

Employees will be protected from suffering detriment or unfair dismissal for reasons related to taking, or seeking to take SPL.

17. FRAUDULENT CLAIMS

The Council can, where there is a suspicion that fraudulent information may have been provided or where the organisation has been informed by the HMRC that a fraudulent claim was made, investigate the matter further in accordance with the usual Council investigation and disciplinary procedures, and also without acting in a discriminatory manner in relation to any of the protected characteristics defined in the Equality Act 2010.
