435	Curriculum Development update from Workshop held on the 28th September 2018	Members were advised that Maggie Turford and Rev Mark Prevett attended the Religious Education and the new Curriculum for Wales Workshop in Cardiff held on the 28th September 2018 where presentations were given by Professor Donaldson, Manon Jones (Welsh Government), Paula Webber and Libby Jones. Maggie Turford and Rev. Mark Prevett took members through the presentation (copies were handed out to members at the meeting). The main issues raised at these workshops were: Professor Donaldson <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • RE is integral to Humanities AoLE but has distinct contribution to make • If separate subject would be vulnerable • It will remain statutory but be strengthened as part of mainstream curriculum • Need for learning to focus more on "purpose" rather than just "what" learned • Importance of learners understanding nature of faith and belief • RE is at centre of developing learners' well-being • SACREs will have a critical part to play in this developing curriculum Manon Jones (Welsh Government): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wider policy issues described, e.g. nursery schools , 6th Forms, need to amend locally agreed syllabi to ensure local arrangements support integration of RE into Humanities curriculum. Group to be set up to draft a framework to support this Paula Webber <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A large number of changes to GCSE RE, involvement of learners, how will framework be translated into good practice? Will RE be easily identifiable?. Concern over the lack of RE specialist teachers. • Knowledge skills and experience will be linked. Schools need freedom to plan but core knowledge needs to be in new curriculum. Was there value in a cross-consortia approach to support teachers? As RE sits in Humanities any training will support RE within this framework.

		Libby Jones-the Supporting Framework for RE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Possible structure for the Supporting Framework for RE, including link to Successful Futures, outline of the “What Matters” approach and the role of the Framework document-the latter could be the Agreed Syllabus. In addition there would be an input from Professor Donaldson • The importance of involving all in process-local authorities, consortia, schools, Challenge Advisers, SACREs • Withdrawal from RE should be very much an exception in new framework-14 statements to be considered as core • “What’s essential in RE”. Discussion ensued on reporting back to Welsh Government on the feedback questions, which were circulated at the meeting. The general consensus by members was that there was still a lack of clarity about the curriculum. The deadline date to Welsh Government for responses is the 16th November 2018. RESOLVED that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The contents of the workshop presentations be noted. • Members wishing to respond directly to Welsh Government to send their response by the deadline date. • Or alternatively e-mail comments to Karen Vokes by Monday, 12th November so that responses can be collated and returned by the deadline date.
436	WASACRE - Summary of July meeting in Anglesey	WASACRE Meeting - 6th July 2018 - Anglesey Maggie Turford led Committee through the minutes of the WASACRE meeting at Anglesey on the 6th July 2018. Concern was expressed to members that individual SACRE Committees have not had the opportunity to make comments or amendments on the WASACRE Constitution, and therefore could this be noted when the WASACRE Constitution is to be considered next. WASACRE Meeting - 20th November 2018 - Vale of Glamorgan The Chair (Councillor Ernie Galsworthy) and Vice Chair (Rev. Mark Prevett) confirmed that they will be attending. WASACRE Spring Meeting - 26th March 2019 - Cardiff Members to confirm with Karen Vokes if they wish to attend.

		Date of next meeting The next meeting of SACRE will be held on Tuesday, 19 th March 2019 at 3.45 pm in Conference Room 2 at the Civic Centre. Maggie Turford to liaise with Karen Vokes on items for the meeting.
