In conclusion Chief Finance Officer (Treasurer) – Peter Curran presented information on:

- Wales: Precept History
- Percentage of Dwelling below Band D Charge
- Council Tax Bands across South Wales Police Area
- Home Office Precept Settlement

Due to inconsistent internet connection, the Commissioner took over the presentation and presented the following information:

- Public Consultation
- Cumulative Impact of Central Government Decisions on Police Funding
- What we are paying for?

The Chair thanked the Commissioner and his Team for the presentation and invited Panel to ask questions.

The Panel raised the matters listed below and asked the following questions:

- How much will the infrastructure costs be to support the additional new officers and how much of the increase in the precept will be used to contribute towards this?
- Clarity sought over amount of covid funding that had been received and how many covid calls were received and dealt with.
- Concern over level of increase versus the decline in visible police officers.
- What extent has the lack of going to Court due to covid had an impact on police time and work and how long will the backlog take to clear?
- What percentage of the precept goes towards the Commissioner's Office?
- Concern raised on the amount of potential redundancies following the end of the furlough scheme and the impact that the increase in council tax would cause on families.
- Concern raised regarding the year on year precept increase over and above the rate of inflation.

The Chair thanked the Commissioner and his Team for the detailed answers provided to the questions/points raised and invited them to leave the meeting for the Panel to deliberate and make their decision regarding the precept.

58	Precept Budget Report and Medium Term Financial Strategy	The Commissioner and his Team were invited back into the meeting to receive the Panel decision. The Chair advised the Commissioner that the Precept of 5.5% increase had been approved by a majority vote.
