2. Sustainable Development Principles (The Five Ways of Working)

Does your proposal demonstrate you have met the sustainable development principles (five ways of working)?

The Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 requires the Council to consider how any proposals improve the social, economic, environmental and cultural well-being, whilst also looking to the future, planning for the long term and ensuring that we do not compromise the ability of future generations to meet their own needs. Please consider the national well-being goals when completing this section.

Five Ways of Working	How does your proposal demonstrate you have met the five ways of working when developing the proposal?	Are there any additional actions to be taken to better contribute to the five ways of working and/or mitigate any negative impacts? How will you know when this has been achieved?
Long Term - Thinking and planning for the long term, balancing short term and long term needs.	By raising issues of concern to them, the members of MTBWYF can support the long term improvement of services that are important to them, e.g. direct participation in services that affect them, such as development of the RARS strategy.	This will be integrated into the new Youth Support Services plan.
Prevention - Preventing problems occurring or getting worse.	Through involvement of young people and incorporating their views services can be improved so that they have an emphasis on prevention, e.g. the development of resources to accompany 'In my House', which raises awareness of child on parent/carer abuse.	This will continue to be a theme within young people's participation.
Integration - Impact on our well-being objectives, national well-being goals and the well-being objectives of other public bodies.	Members of MTBWYF have contributed to and been involved in a number of initiatives across the local authority and Cwm Taf Morgannwg area, e.g. the RARS Strategy.	MTBWYF is able to choose areas of work they wish to become involved in and this will remain a feature in the new Youth Support Services Plan.
Collaboration - Acting in collaboration with others inside and outside the Council.	The work of the MTBWYF is undertaken in collaboration with many other partners and this has been a strength during the pandemic. e.g. the local authority Youth Service and young people attending its youth settings; staff in the Learning Department; Democratic Services; Scrutiny C'tee and Performance Team; elected members, including the Leader, Deputy Leader and Children's Champion; Chief Officers; PSB; Public Health Wales, Cwm Taf Morgannwg Safeguarding Board.
